Patients must be carefully followed. The advice of their physician to profit from the knowledge such research is building up on heart disease.

Answer to Question No. 2: Commonly known as TB meningitis is a tuberculous infection of the covering membranes of the brain. Formerly, the disease was always fatal. Today, though TB meningitis is still a serious problem of heart disease, it has been out in half as a result of new drugs and treatment.

Yes. Due to the fast pace of modern life an extra burden is placed on the heart-taking its strength beyond its normal ability. The problem of heart disease is also heightened by the increased life span. With more middle-aged and old-aged people to day, there are more "candidates" for this number one killer. L. A. LESTER OF GOODMAN FOUNDED DEAD IN FIELD

L. A. Lester, 78-years-old was found dead Friday in a broom cane patch near his home in Goodman community. Corner T. T. Rhodes, Dr. C. P. Hayes and Sheriff H. D. Tillman went to the scene and held an inquest. It showed death was from natural causes and there was no indication of foul play. Mr. Rhodes said Lester had apparently gone to the cane patch where a tree had been cut down. His axe was found leaning against the stump. It seems he suffered a heart attack and had fallen backward into the cane patch. Dr. Hayes estimated he had been dead 15 hours when found.

Surviving are the widow, a brother, J. L. Lester of Philadelphia, Miss.; and a sister, Mrs. Jennie Arnett of Midland City. Funeral services were held at Goodman Church Saturday with Rev. T. E. Bridges officiating. Interment was in the church cemetery.

SE NATURAL GAS DIRECTORS MEET

Financing of a distribution system for the Southeastern Natural Gas District will be handled by the district, representatives of the towns concerned met Friday afternoon at the city council chambers.

A provision for the cities to have the option of taking over the facilities. Much enthusiasm was displayed at the meeting. It was announced that final approval of the district's franchise application will be consummated in March or April and some of the member municipalities north of Birmingham will probably receive natural gas sometime in 1933. It will probably be the fall of 1934 before the line reaches Elba.

TELEGRAPH OUT
Elba was without telegraph service from Friday afternoon until Saturday about noon. A coast line railroad section crew cut down a large tree on the east side of the railway trestle across Pea River.

As the tree fell it tore wires loose all the way to the railway station, a distance of more than one-quarter mile. Broken wires were repaired by a crew from Dothan Saturday.

During the interruption messages were relayed by telephone from Enterprise or some other point.

NOW OFFERS THE ADDITIONAL SERVICE OF

CUSTOM GRINDING

For Greater Profits
The right feeds will produce the results you want, thereby increasing your profits. Our new service will enable you to get the feed you want with the kind and quality of ingredients that are desired. You can benefit from your own experience by getting feed mixed the way you want it. The difference will show up in the profit you derive. If your feeding operations do not show the profit they should, we can be of service to you.

A COMPLETE SERVICE

Our custom grinding service is designed to fit your requirements. It was installed with the sole idea of grinding feeds for farmers in this area. You will be pleased with what we have to offer.

We can handle all of your feed grinding needs promptly at a price that is reasonable. For a complete feed grinding service try us first. Come in any time.

Most "profit-conscious" farmers in this area have been dealing with us for years when it comes to ginning cotton and selling peanuts. They know they were assured of good ginning service and prices that were right. We invite you to try our custom grinding—service is of the best and prices are right.

MORE PROFITS FOR YOU

Healthy fatter animals will result in greater profits for you. Proper feeding is the answer. The way to get proper feed is to bring your "mixings" to us for custom grinding. Our personnel are experienced and the equipment good. If you desire to have molasses mixed with your hay when it is ground, we have this service available too. Also, corn and other type of feeds you want mixed or ground can be handled here. REMEMBER—skinny hogs, cattle and poultry just don't pay. If you are faced with this situation, perhaps your feeding operations are the cause. Quality feeds result in quality animals. Come in and discuss your feeding requirements with us.

A Year-Round Market for Your Hay and Feed
With the addition of a custom grinder to our plant facilities, we are going to try to give the farmers in this area a year-round market for hay and feed. Heretofore there have been times when the market was glutted and the farmer could not sell his hay or feed. With our present set-up we hope this will not occur in Elba anymore. Before you buy or sell feed, or have it ground, be sure to visit our plant. Prompt service at reasonable prices are assured.

Two Fires on Brantley Road Keep Firemen Busy Saturday Afternoon; Damage Slight

Saturday afternoon was a busy time for the Elba fire department. The firemen were called to Evergreen cemetery about 1:30 o'clock where they fought and extinguished a blaze that had spread over a large area. A still breeze from the south caused the flames to threaten the cemetery. A large expanse of woods and grasslands were burned over.

About 3:30 o'clock the same afternoon, the department made a quick run to the Alton Bullard place on the Elba-Samson highway, three miles south of Elba. A large tenant house and barn were entirely destroyed when firemen arrived. The house was built occupied by Jack Suttley and family but was unoccupied when it burned.

The home of William Goodson located across the highway from the Adams' property was threatened but work of the firemen alleviated this hazard.

Goodson, Bullard and Adams expressed their appreciation for the fire department's efforts. The city policy of sending fire-fighting equipment into rural sections is appreciated by the area residents.

Elba Downs New Brocton, 53-52, Friday Evening

The Elba Tigers A and B squads made a clean sweep of New Brocton Friday night. In the preliminary the Tigers B team handily from Brocton, 56-37. Donaldson was top scorer for Elba with 18 and Hodge led the Gamecocks with 13 points.

The Elba B team has lost only one game this season, their first contest to Bufala.

The main event was not decided until the closing whistle. Including Friday night's defeat, the Gamecocks have won 13 and lost three.

A feature of the game was the outstanding play of Wayne Marshall, who has been benched because of grades. He overcame this difficulty last semester and carried the difference between Elba's winning and losing.

Elba scorers were Goodson 8; Hodge 17; Marshall 17; Powell 8; Bowdoin 5; Jacobs 8 and Reeves 6.

They are both in the 10th grade in the Elba Colored High School. In case this test turns out to be a dry hole, the Page family plan to keep on running it out on their farm. The drillers will pick up their rig and move to another location. Both benefit themselves and society in general through their efforts.

And because of the efforts of big business, the former shareholder stands a chance of being insured beyond his wildest dreams.

Survivors are the widow, Mrs. Will Green Young, three sons: Texal Young, "Proy," Reginald and Ronnie Young, both of New Brocton; three brothers, John Young, Ponce de Leon, Fla.; Oates Young, Samson and Windsor Young, Enterprise; three sisters, Mrs. Ammie Butts, Orlando, Fla.; Mrs. Minnie Lebedole, Columbus, Ga.; and Mrs. Eunice McIntosh.

Funeral services were held on Monday afternoon at Liberty Church of Christ, Ministers Filard Willis of Laverne and George Herring of Elba officiating.

Pallbearers were Charles Farris, Otto Farris, Jimmy Bowdoin, and Rob English.

Interment was in Damascus cemetery. Hayes Funeral Home directing.

Six junior high teams will participate. They are Elba vs Enterprise, starting at 6 o'clock; Fairview vs New Hope, 7 o'clock; Basin vs Damascus, 8 o'clock.

After her talk she met about 30 Elba people and heard them reorganize the old School Improvement association with the following officers: Mrs. J. T. Pierson, president; Mrs. F. R. Rainer, vice-president; Mrs. W. C. Braswell, secretary-treasurer.

At the Saturday morning session

It is the saddest news we have heard of late in Elba. The death of Mrs. S. J. Parris, which occurred at her home a few miles below Elba last Friday morning, following an illness of only a few hours. Her death was caused by a paralytic stroke. She apparently was in the best of health on retiring Thursday night but when members of her family awoke early Friday she was found unconscious.

Medical aid was summoned but she could not be revived and death came about 8 o'clock that morning.

She was survived by her husband and a number of other relatives. The funeral and burial occurred Saturday at Bethlehem church and cemetery.

Florida's Last Confederate VET BORN HERE

William T. (Uncle Bill) Lundy, Florida's only surviving Confederate veteran who recently celebrated his 105th birthday at his home in Laurel Hill, Fla., was born in Elba, he said. He answered a newsmen's question at his birthday party.

"I guess there a few good Yankees now or at least that's what I've been told," His eyes twinkled as he said it.

A heavy rain couldn't spoil the anniversary celebration at the log home where "Uncle Bill" and his children, their families and over 100 friends gathered. He built his house on the banks of the Yellow River near Laurel over 50 years ago. Two of his six sons, Tom and Pete, and his four daughters, Miss Vinie Lundy, live with him.

All of his children are living. He has started out to find the Elba and moved to Florida as a young man.

Nothing Encouraging to Report—Oil Drilling Test Is Halted at 3650 Feet

By C. B. McDowell

At 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon there was nothing encouraging to report on the oil well being drilled on Andrew Page's farm in Shady Grove community of Coffee County. Jack Daniels, southeastern manager for E. B. LaRue of Athens, Texas who is having the well drilled, stated they were down to 3650 feet and were 500 feet into the Lower Cretaceous formation where oil was discovered near Brewton in the Pollard field.

Sometime during the afternoon, the drillers planned a coring and schamber log. The schamber log is an electronic picture of the well that can just about definitely establish whether or not oil is present at this level.

The Troy Messenger takes exception to my statement in The Elba Clipper that the Montgomery Advertiser's announcement that the oil well being drilled north of Elba is in Pike County, called some two miles beyond the article with a three-deck three-column wide head. The Messenger printed:

"It's a far cry from cattle-rustling or horse thievery, but Pike Countians have been accused of stealing an oil well."

"Now, wait a minute—we ain't done no such thing! It was those doggone boys who stole the oil well from us!"

"C. B. McDowell, in an article in The Elba Clipper, quoted in The Montgomery Advertiser which said:

"Drilling for oil was started in Pike County this week. The machinery was set up about 12 miles south of Troy, near Henderson."

"McDowell went on to say he had read the Troy Messenger and that the oil well being drilled north of Elba is in Pike County, called some two miles beyond the article with a three-deck three-column wide head. The Messenger printed:

Medical aid was summoned but she could not be revived and death came about 8 o'clock that morning.

She was survived by her husband and a number of other relatives. The funeral and burial occurred Saturday at Bethlehem church and cemetery.
